Use of image data

The use of the images and logos made available for download is only permitted to customers of L-SHOP-TEAM.

The images may only be used to advertise original products in conjunction with the logo or name of the respective brand

L-SHOP-TEAM GmbH does not assume any liability for use of the image data which is not in line with these usage restrictions.

Use of the images in connection with racist and pornographic content or for political and similar purposes is strictly prohibited.

Use of the data is limited to one calendar year (01.01.-31.12.).

The data may be used free of charge and without location-based restrictions within this calendar year (special rules for retail platforms etc.).

High-resolution images may only be used for printed products no larger than DIN A4 (e.g. catalogues, brochures and flyers etc.).

Low-resolution images may only be used for web-based advertising (e.g. newsletters, web banners etc.).

Graphic editing of model shots (product photos containing people) is not permitted.

Pack shots (photos only containing the product) may be edited, e.g. by adding a logo.

Use in online marketplaces or on retail platforms or other platforms (e.g. social networks) requiring use for an unlimited time or transfer of image rights is not permitted.

The files in the Social Media and Videos folders that are explicitly intended for the use in social networks are excluded from this regulation.
